

Directions to MS2 Marine Systems, Baltimore MD.

(See Baltimore area map on page 3)

From The South:

Take I-95 north through the Fort McHenry Tunnel or take the Baltimore-Washington Parkway (Rt 295) north to I-95 north. Go through the tunnel to the northern intersection (exit 64A) with Baltimore beltway (I-695). Get off at the Rt. 40 East interchange. You are on Route 40, pass through 2 lights and, within a mile, you will see Martin Blvd. exit. Exit Route 40 onto Martin Blvd. and pass through 4 lights. You will now have the plant in view. See below for directions to specific locations.

From The North:

Take I-95 south to the Baltimore beltway (I-695). Get in the left hand lane after the White Marsh exit. Get on (I-695) heading towards Essex, stay in the right lane. Get off at the Rt. 40 East interchange. Get off at the Rt. 40 East interchange. You are on Route 40, pass through 2 lights and, within a mile, you will see Martin Blvd. exit. Exit Route 40 onto Martin Blvd. and pass through 4 lights. You will now have the plant in view. See below for the specific directions into the plant.

MS2 – Marine Systems, Baltimore Facility

Specific Entry points at the facility:

P-Building Visitor Entrance

Once you are on Martin Blvd get in the left-hand lane. Turn left after crossing under the bridge into the first entrance for Lockheed Martin. P-Building is the first building on your right.

Program Building Visitor Entrance

Once you are on Martin Blvd, get in the right-hand lane. Take the second right onto Eastern Avenue (after crossing under the overpass). Proceed across the railroad tracks. E Building is the five story office building to your right. Immediately after crossing the tracks, take the next right (by the gas station). Turn left at the stop sign, go to the next intersection, turn right. The Program building is on the right. Proceed to the Guarded entrance and sign in.

E-Building Visitor Entrance

Once you are on Martin Blvd, get in the right-hand lane. Take the second right onto Eastern Avenue (after crossing under the overpass). Proceed across the railroad tracks. E Building is the five story office building to your right. Immediately after crossing the tracks, take the next right (by the gas station). Park in the lot to your right, and enter through the front of the building, directly behind the flagpoles, and see the Guard for a visitor pass. (See map next page)